

MONTGOMERY ROCKVILLE MEN'S SOCCER RANKED IN NATIONAL POLLS

Montgomery Rockville Men's Soccer has spent the entire season ranked in the Division III national polls. They were ranked 7th in the pre-season polls and were ranked as high as 5th. They are ranked 15th in the September 22, 2009 poll.

The Knights are currently 6-4-1 (3-2 in MD JUCO). Coach Steven Nakamura said that the team has depended on the steady defense of John During and the play of Rommel Fuentes. Burak Gundogan has provided control of the ball in midfield.

Montgomery Rockville has been hurt by an injury to Carlos Canchasto and difficulties in scoring. "This is the fastest team that I have ever had," said Nakamura, but with the exception of the Cecil game, we have not been able to finish."

Nakamura is in his 5th season at Montgomery Rockville. He hopes to get past the district game and go to the National Tournament this season.
